

Innisdale Daily Announcements

October 4, 2023

Junior Boys Volleyball	The junior boys volleyball team hosted Nantyr Shores last night. We got off to a strong start and took the first two sets. Unfortunately, Nantyr battled back and won the match. Players - Practice today and tomorrow after school.
Cross Country Running	Cross country runners, please log into the team Google Classroom and check out the cross-country running gear. The E-store is open until October 15th. Don't delay. Order today. There is a practice today after school.
Tennis	The Innisdale Tennis team competed at the GBBSA championships yesterday in Collingwood. Alyssa Kucherawy and Maddie Martynshyn went undefeated throughout the tournament and won gold in the Girls' Doubles category. They will be representing GBBSA and Innisdale at OFSAA.
Girls Varsity Hockey	If you are interested in playing hockey on the Girls Varsity team, please come to a quick meeting this Friday in the Cafe at 10:45. If you have questions see Mr. Banks or Ms. Broley.
JEDI/Diversity Club	Do you want to help make Innisdale more inclusive and to celebrate cultural diversity? The JEDI team from last year is starting back up again -- that's the Justice, Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Team. This is open to ALL students. We can plan events like a cultural fashion show -- but we need YOUR ideas. We will hold a first meeting TODAY at lunch -- bring your lunch and join us in Room 133 (across the hall from the office) at the start of lunch.
Debate Team	Are you looking to build or practice your public speaking and debating skills in a competitive environment? If so, the debate team would be perfect for you! There is a debate team meeting TODAY from 2:30-4:30 in the library. You will be learning Canadian National Debate rules, watching a model debate, and participating in skill-building activities. Thank you to all students who came out for last week's debate team information session. We hope to see you back, and any students who missed the information session but want to learn what debate is all about are invited to attend.
Student Council	FOOD DRIVE! Spread the wealth and help your community by bringing in non-perishable food items to your homeroom class to donate. This may include canned beans, peas, corn, and more. You could be one of the many heroes in the shadows providing countless families in need with a meal.
Student Council	Student cards will be available to be picked up outside the main office at lunch this week starting today. You need your student card to be eligible to attend in-school events, get a discount on city transit, and supports club expenses.
Terry Fox Run	The Terry Fox run will take place this Thursday, Oct. 5 during period 3. Students are asked to donate any denomination of money to their period 3 teacher during the week. As well, students will have the opportunity to purchase a buy-in ticket to the senior boys football game which will take place during period 4 following the Terry Fox run. Tickets are $2 and all proceeds will go to the Terry Fox Foundation. Students can purchase tickets, at lunch, in the great hall, today until Thursday.
Co-op	If you are interested in a Military Co-op for Semester 2 applications are now available. Please see a co-op teacher for details as soon as possible.
Basketball Skill Development	Basketball skill development program runs on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Please arrive to the main gym at the start of lunch with proper gym shoes and attire.
Cafe	Don't forget to come by for your Turkey Dinner Plate in the CAFÉ! From October 3 rd – 6 th . We will be offering a full Turkey Dinner which includes Turkey, stuffing, mashed potato, veggies, gravy, cranberry sauce, and a dessert. All for only $8.49.... sounds delicious.
