

Innisdale Daily Announcements

November 2, 2023

Guidance	Today is a double header, grads. First off - Lakehead at Georgian at 11:40 in the library. Lakehead at Georgian offers an invaluable opportunity to save money and earn a university degree right in your own backyard. Offering coop and many dynamic diploma/degree programs, Lakehead at Georgian has a LOT to offer - make sure you come and check it out! Next up at 12:00 in the library - Carlton University. Carlton is in our capital city of Ottawa, Ontario, and is situated along the Rideau Canal right outside the downtown core. Known for hands on research opportunities, Carlton is also a great community - offering tons of extracurricular activities and programs like journalism and public affairs.
Girl's Varsity Hockey	Do you play hockey? Have you played hockey in the past? The Girls Varsity Hockey is up and running. We are looking for a few more players. If you are interested see Mr. Banks in Room 168 and/or Ms. Broley in Room 147.
Guidance	Attention students 17 or older, are you looking to earn community service hours? Make a difference by donating blood to Canadian Blood Services with Innisdale on November 3rd. One donation earns you 4 community service hours and can, on average, save 3 lives. To register, sign up at blood.ca or on the GiveBlood app and remember to bring a piece of physical ID!
SHSM Custom Woodworking	There is a mandatory SHSM Construction and Custom Woodworking meeting Friday at the start of lunch. The meeting will take place in the Custom Woodworking classroom room 174. Anyone wanting information on SHSM Construction and Custom woodworking can also attend.
Grade 12's	Attention Grade 12's: if you have a period one spare, please come to the main office to collect a letter regarding Graduation plans.
Varsity Hockey	Attention! All interested in Boy's Varsity Hockey, a mandatory meeting will be held today at the beginning of lunch in the small gym.
Boys Basketball	All interested in trying out for the Jr. and Sr. boy's basketball team. The first tryout will be held today for the Juniors right after school in the big gym. Senior boys tryout will be early next week. Don't miss it!
Student Council	Do you love to sing? Or maybe you love going to concerts? If so, retro karaoke will be hosted in the cafeteria today at lunch! Sign up to sing or come watch some amazing performances!